¹ This timeline is anticipatory and subject to change. Updates to this document will be made when changes occur.

² Dependent on OMB expedited approval intended to not extend the 28 days to file the proposed rule.

³ IDOL intends to file the proposed rule with the publisher as soon as it has approval from OMB, but no sooner than 28 days after the notice of intent is published pursuant to Ind. Code § 4-22-2-23.

⁴ IDOL intends to hold a public hearing within, but no sooner than, 21 days after all publication requirements are met pursuant to Ind. Code § 4-22-2-24.

⁵ The attorney general has up to 45 days to review from the date that an agency submits or resubmits a rule pursuant to Ind. Code § 4-22-2-32.

⁶ The governor has 15 days from the date it receives a rule to approve or disapprove the rule. However, the governor may take up to 30 days to approve or disapprove the rule if the governor files a statement with the publisher within the first 15 days after receipt that states that the governor intends to take an additional 15 days to approve or disapprove the rule pursuant to Ind. Code § 4-22-2-34.

⁷ Rule becomes effective 30 days after filing with the publisher (unless a later effective date is specified in the rule) pursuant to Ind. Code § 4-22-2-36.
